

Building Program for 1949 Is Almost Double Record

Manpower, Material Only Things Needed

Edmonton's 1949 building program will be almost double last year's record figure if manpower and material permit, present construction plans to Estimate is based on a survey made by The Bulletin of projects now being planned or completed by architects, land purchasers made for building purposes and definite announcements of building projects.

CARRYOVER INCLUDED

Included in the total is the carry-over of several projects started last year. This year's estimate is $25,260,000. Carryover accounts for approximately $4,000,000 of the construction potential.

Construction in 1948 set the total record of $21,125,750. This year's estimate is $25,260,000. Housing alone would account for an estimated 2,000 accommodation units being provided at a cost of approximately $2,500,000.

Last year it was $13,514,908. Commercial construction will reach an estimated $20,800,000 in 1949. This compares with $3,671,536 last year.

Institutional construction in 1948 will total an estimated $12,613,000, according to figures under this classification last year.

STEEL BIG QUESTION

Steel, in short supply, will be the main stumbling block in the realization of the 1949 construction program.

Concrete will be available in much greater quantities. Canada Cement Co. of Montreal, for example, has building requirements will be met this year.

Present plans call for construction of 1,500 homes under the federal government's integrated housing program. Estimated cost of these houses is $10,000,000. A further 1,000 homes will be erected under the National Housing Plan. City contractors will erect 500 of these at an estimated cost of $5,500,000, and 500 will be erected by private individuals at a cost of $5,000,000.

APARTMENT BLOCKS

Five hundred accommodation units will be provided through apartment block construction. Estimated cost of these projects is $12,500,000.

Institutional construction projects include: Edmonton Public School Board, complete high school (carry-over) $2,500,000; four elementary schools $750,000; Edmonton Sparrow School Board, one school and additions to several others $1,000,000; University of Alberta, new addition, (carry-over), $2,500,000; Edmonton Exhibition Association, extension $100,000; new grandstand $450,000.

Accused was arrested in a local theatre, where, according to particular given court, he had accused two nine-year-old girls.

Rene Seguin, 19, was fined $40 and costs and had his driver's license suspended for six months when he pleaded guilty to a charge of dangerous driving. Seguin had crashed into a telephone pole at 100 street and 102 avenue while proceeding west on the avenue. This was his second conviction on the charge.

August F. Johnson, 9629 106 St. was fined $85 and costs for failing to keep to the right of the centre line at an intersection, Ronald O. 9601 85 avenue, charged by police while driving at 50 miles an hour on Jasper, was fined $25 and had his license suspended for three months.

Sharp drop was registered in the number of communicable disease cases reported to the health department during the week ended Jan. 15 compared with the previous week.

Theatre Space Lack Hinders City Culture

Edmonton may have to be left out of Canadian professional stage circuit now being developed, for lack of proper theatre facilities.

Brian Doherty, producer of "The Drunkard," which will be showing at the Westgate Auditorium January 24 to 26, is interviewing Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of economic affairs, and other members of the provincial government today in an attempt to interest them in supporting a community theatre through Alberta and in hiring Canadian talent for fair and equitable conditions.

Mr. Doherty, who has been conducting a "one-man campaign" to revive the professional theatre in Canada, has already developed an eastern Canadian circuit.

In the west so far his show, sponsored here by the Cosmopolitan Club, has been greeted not only to return but delegations from other communities have asked they be included on the next tour.

With the problem of the long hop between Toronto and Winnipeg solved by a dip down to American cities he hoped that a permanent circuit could be established in Canada.

Edmonton would be included if proper theatre facilities could be obtained.

Mr. Doherty during his two-day visit here will be seeing Robert Stuart, assistant professor of dramatics at the University of Alberta, whom he was responsible for bringing to Canada. "I hope you are making good use of him," he said. "He is one of the best directors I know."

What your life insurance company is doing to safeguard your health

Your life insurance company wants to do everything possible to help keep you in the best of health for the rest of your life. So, in cooperation with all other life insurance companies, it contributes funds to public health and medical research projects.

Some of these projects seek new methods of preventing heart ailments and such deadly diseases as cancer, tuberculosis and polio. Others search for scientific information to promote better nutrition, prenatal care and dental hygiene.

And because the life insurance companies help support these projects, more "men and women in white" work at these vital tasks. Laboratories expand and buy new equipment. Science makes greater headway in pushing back the frontiers of disease.

In addition some individual companies sponsor special health projects for the benefit of their policyholders.

All these efforts help to reduce the ultimate cost of life insurance. And they play an important behind-the-scenes part in helping you and your family to enjoy longer, healthier lives!

What your life insurance company is doing to safeguard your health

Your life insurance company wants to do everything possible to help keep you in the best of health for the rest of your life. So, in cooperation with all other life insurance companies, it contributes funds to public health and medical research projects.

Some of these projects seek new methods of preventing heart ailments and such deadly diseases as cancer, tuberculosis and polio. Others search for scientific information to promote better nutrition, prenatal care and dental hygiene.

And because the life insurance companies help support these projects, more "men and women in white" work at these vital tasks. Laboratories expand and buy new equipment. Science makes greater headway in pushing back the frontiers of disease.

In addition some individual companies sponsor special health projects for the benefit of their policyholders.

All these efforts help to reduce the ultimate cost of life insurance. And they play an important behind-the-scenes part in helping you and your family to enjoy longer, healthier lives!

The only company holding a lease on the river this year, the Edmonton firm will put away 20,000 tons, augmented by another 15,000 tons from nearby lakes. WONNIEG, Jan. 17.—(CP)—A racket in the buying and selling of city-owned property was reported today to have been thwarted.

City council finance committee set up an effective block to the operation by ordering stoppage of any further sales of city-owned properties. This move followed charges by Ald. C. E. Simionite that the city lost thousands of dollars which had been funneled into the pockets of "unscrupulous buyers."

PRICES INCREASED

Finance committee also has instructed the property sub-committee to increase property prices so that they stand at 100 per cent of their assessed value. The "landlegging" had been engaged in by operators who took advantage. Ald. Simionite claimed, of a policy instituted in 1939 where land could be bought at lower than the assessed price.

Under the 1939 measure, city properties could be sold at 80 per cent of their assessed value to bona-fide home-builders and 75 per cent of value for commercial purposes. Council instructed this procedure to thousands of vacant lots held by the city would be placed on the tax roll.

PROFIT IS CITED

The time has come when it is no longer necessary to sell city properties at bargain values merely to put them on the tax roll, said Ald. Simionite. "It is very easy for a smart operator to make thousands of dollars profit through purchase and resale of city land."

Ald. Simionite charged several months ago in initiating investigation of the matter, that many buyers made minor improvements to lots bought from the city, such as partial excavations for building, and then reselling at a nice profit. Others resold at as much as double what they had paid without even such a gesture.

It is not enough, the review says, just to buy from Europe, to compete and imports. The levels at which they are balanced is of great importance.

"Balance at a low level of trade might be an accounting victory, but it would not mean European recovery in any real sense, nor would it allow the re-establishment of a multilateral trading system."

Women Curlers Flock to City for Bonspiel

More Fun and Less Pounds For Rock-Happy Bonspielers

Women who tire of pink teas and bridges often turn to sports for "a new outlook and a flat tummy."

And more than 250 women from all parts of Northern Alberta have flocked to the city of Edmonton this week-end for the annual bonspiel of the Northern Alberta Women's Curling Association.

The advantages of testing a 40 pound curler's arms and legs over pondering bridge bids are easy to see when curling pump mutes come home to hubby after a happy week of curling... slim and svelte.

Mrs. T. J. Stevenson, president of the association, is full of enthusiasm and says that the women will wind up the rigorous week of curling... looking healthy, happy and knowing that they are a wonderful lot.

"You can't beat curling for taking off pounds and toning up muscles," enthuses one woman curler, "and you feel like a woman after being in the crisp air."

Annual meeting and banquet will be held by the association at the Masonic Temple on Wednesday at 6 p.m.

Inhibitions are shed and everyone has a barrel of fun at the banquet.

Women, who spend years of their lives in the domestic sphere, find their years' work to the winds for this one evening and take part in the most enjoyable of all sports, the curling of the curlers.

It'll be a week check-off of fun for the curlers.

Mrs. A. H. Rayment Elected President Holy Trinity WA

Mansfield, Junior WA; Miss A. Sweeney, girls' auxiliary.

During the singing of the register Dr. Margaret M. Hutton sang "O Fair, O Sweet and Holy." Baskets of white mums and American beauty roses decorated the ABC Salons of the Macdonald hotel for the reception which followed the ceremony.

White chrysanthemums and American beauty roses, intermingled with palms and ferns, were used in profusion to decorate the candle-lit altar.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride was seated in a train-length model of black pink satin. The high-necked bodice was buttoned with tiny self-covered buttons, and the lily point sleeves and neckline were trimmed with Brussels lace.

A wreath of orange blossoms which had been worn by the bride's mother, held a long veil of matching black pink tulle. Spray bouquets of American beauty roses, tied with satin ribbons, completed the bride's ensemble.

Mrs. C. Sommer attended her sister as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Berne Kaufman and Miss Ruth Lawley. They chose identical models of American beauty tulle, styled with draped hiplines, three quarter length sleeves, low rounded necklines. Sprays of white baby's breath were in striking contrast to their frocks.

Flower girl was little Marjorie Anne Sommer, niece of the bride. Her tulle frock was dusky rose and she carried a Colonial message. Berne Kaufman was best man, and the guests were ushered by Mr. Thompson, Frank C. Sommer, Dr. Donald McDonald, and Norris Harris.

RCMP Officer Gives Address At Club Meet

Corporal J. Mortimer, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, was guest speaker at a recent meeting of the University Women's Club held in the medical building.

"The RCMP and Youth" was Corporal Mortimer's theme.

He spoke of unwise parents and teachers who frighten children with threats of the police... if they don't behave.

This is poor policy, says Corporal Mortimer, children will develop a distaste for representatives of the law... consequently for the law.

The RCMP has launched a definite program of educating youth to know and respect police as friends and helpers. At the conclusion of his address, Corporal Mortimer showed a film illustrating training and modern equipment of the RCMP.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas
HOLLYWOOD.—(AP) Carl Brisson, the world's most glamorous grandfather, has sharp words for the younger cronies of today:

"They are terrible. They show no style at all. They all buy a microphone and try to sing like Bing Crosby."

After seeing the sparklingly young Carl, who had a right to point out. For I saw him throw out an unsophisticated audience at the Grand Canyon on one of the coldest nights in Los Angeles history. After a few minutes of stinging amusements and kidding with the folks, he had then yelling for more. He trawled all over the floor and acts out of his songs with a coolness and ease.

GRANDPA CARL
Carl's son Freddie and Ronald Reagan have a four-act-old boy and I hinted that Carl was doing some of the same old stuff. He said: "What difference does it make if I am a grandfather? He asked: 'That doesn't worry me. Who else can do the job I am doing?'"

"I have a hotel suite and I live like a King. I go down in the elevator two times a night, sing some songs and get lots of applause. How else could I earn $250,000 a week so easily?"

WAY BACK WHEN
Steve fans will remember Carl from his Paramount films in the early 20s. Why did he quit picture acting? "Let's face it—they quit me," he said frankly.

But he may be back in the movie scene. Son Freddie plans to film the life story of his 50-year-old famous father. He would make a fabulous story, since Carl has done everything from winning boxing championships to playing before the King of England and Mussolini.

Woman Reports Rape Aboard Speeding Train

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Two sailors, questioned by railroad police in the reported rape of a 35-year-old mother as she slept in her berth aboard the speeding Southern Pacific's West Coast Limited, were released last night.

J. J. Finnegan, deputy assistant of the mail, said the sailors "swung over in the upper end of the train as it sped through the Los Angeles area, where it was reported by a woman who came aboard with the train and through the train car Sunday."

The railroad official said Mrs. Holmes, 35, has not identified anyone yet as her attacker. He added that no warrants or charges have been filed.

Mrs. Holmes left the train at an undivided spot before it reached here. District Attorney Hiram E. Van Vorst of Kern County, who investigated the case aboard the train as it rumbled south, also was not alerted.

Authorities said Mrs. Holmes was part of the service police on the train in the club car playing card games with her and reported the rape.

Water May Be Poisoned

WAUKAHA, Okla., Jan. 17.—(AP)—Mayor O. D. Kynard said he had reports Waukaha's water system might be poisoned by Frank Godby, former convict charged with the murder of an Oklahoma city lawyer.

All approaches to this southern Oklahoma town of 2,000 persons are being watched by officers. He said he had been told that Godby had threatened to "pay back" Waukaha for his conviction 17 years ago on an armed robbery charge.

'It's Awful to Love A Woman' Says Accused

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 17.—(AP)—A 27-year-old war veteran held in connection with the bar-room slaying of his wife says "it's awful to love a woman."

Not only that, said Clay Patterson, of London, O., "it can lead to trouble."

Patterson said "the trouble" erupted Friday night with the shooting of Mrs. Elizabeth Ruth Patterson, 21, before 25 horrified patrons in the Winton Grill in downtown Columbus.

A few minutes later, two policemen walked into the Grill and found Mrs. Patterson, a waitress, lying on the floor, about five times. Patterson told police he married "Betty" last July 19 and that shortly thereafter they separated. After the separation, Mrs. Patterson came to Columbus and began working as a waitress. He said he came to Columbus Thursday in an attempt to persuade his wife to go to Huntington.

Barring U.S. Hunters At Season Start Asked

WINNIPEG, Jan. 17.—(CP)—A resolution calling for the barring of American hunters from Manitoba for the first 10 days of the 1948 hunting season has been approved by the Greater Winnipeg Game and Fish Association.

V. Hurst led a discussion dealing with the large number of Americans who hunted intensively over the marshes in the Delta area west of Winnipeg. It was claimed their activities reduced the game population. The meeting then passed the resolution.

Reports on starvation of deer throughout the province as a result of deep snow also was received by the meeting. The report said winter hunting was severe and coupled with "wanton killing" last fall might result in a greatly curtailed deer population.

INVALID, WIFE ARE SAVED BY DARING PAIR

TORONTO, Jan. 17.—(CP)—An off-duty fireman and a young neighbor saved the lives of Dan Parker, 74-year-old invalid and Parker's wife, trapped in a room by flames which early yesterday swept through their home.

Fire dispatcher Jim Porter and Bob Falls climbed a house-made ladder to the Parkers' bedroom and carried them onto a balcony outside their window. Firemen, who arrived shortly afterwards with regular ladders, assisted the couple to the street. The fire, blamed on an over-heated furnace, caused damage estimated at $1,700.
